Stuart H. Morgan, the builder, has just purchased 216 feet of land on Elm street, near Norton street, and will erect thereon five two-family frame houses with modern conveniences. When the improvements are completed the property will inventory over $30,000. Each house will have six rooms on a floor and four rooms in the attic. The houses will be built with four gables and will be very desirable for first class homes. He intends building two of these houses this season, beginning about April 1. Mr. Morgan is just completing a fine two family house on George street.

Frederick Collett, the grocer at 298 Blatchley avenue, who resides over his store, will move in a few days to the house that he has recently purchased and located on Exchange street, near Blatchley avenue.

The Yale students have begun rowing on Mill river. With a few remaining ice cakes floating down stream, it would seem rather cool for boating, but the students do not seem to mind it.

The regular meeting of Columbia castle, K. G. E., was held last evening. After the business a Dutch supper was served and the season of sociability around the supper table was much enjoyed.

There is quite a little talk among the democratic politicians over the outlook for the April election. If a citizen's ticket is put in the field, there will be an added interest and excitement in the mayoralty contest.

Dr. James H. Liden has bought a new parlor in New York which promises quite a little speed.

The funeral of Henry A. Sabine, two years of age, who died at the home of his parents back of Fair Haven Heights was held yesterday afternoon. The child died from the effects of spotted fever.

Attorney James P. Bree of Blatchley avenue left yesterday for Washington and old Point Comfort for a stay of two weeks for the benefit of his health. Letter Carrier E. R. Coogan of English street, who has been ill nearly a year, is reported as not so well this week.

A section of water main in Ferry street, just south of Grand avenue, burst Monday night and workmen were making repairs yesterday. It was necessary to run all cars between Grand avenue and Chapel street on the west track.

This evening the Lenten services at the St. Francis church will include sermon and benediction.

The funeral of Michael Welch of 206 Poplar street will take place at his late home on Thursday at 8:30 and at St. Francis church at 9 a. m. with a solemn requiem high mass.

There was a large attendance yesterday afternoon at the funeral services of the late Lillian M. daughter of Martin and the late Lydia Allen. The services were held at her late home, 204 Lenox street, and were conducted by Rev. R. E. Brown.

There will be a men's supper given at the Pilgrim church this evening at 7 o'clock. It will be followed by an entertainment—a farce in one act entitled "Who's Who." It is very laughable, and you are invited.

ENTERTAINMENTS

Hyperion Theater.
FRANCIS WILSON IN "COUSIN BILLY."

Francis Wilson will be seen at the Hyperion Theatre to-morrow night, presented by Charles Frohman in the Clyde Fitch play, "Cousin Billy," which ran for one hundred performances at the Criterion Theatre, New York. As a laugh-provoker Francis Wilson has been almost unrivalled during the score of years he has held the center of the stage, and it seemed, for a time, that his audiences would not accept him in any role other than that of his inimitable "Caddie," the rogue in perennial "Erminie," a character that he has played high unto two thousand nights. It remained for Charles Frohman to radically change the field of Mr. Wilson's work by barring out the comedian's incidental singing altogether, and confining his comic efforts to speech and action solely, on the skeleton text especially provided by Clyde Fitch under the title of "Cousin Billy." Experiment that all this really was, Mr. Wilson scored as a hit that will tally with that of his "Caddie," and this our theatre-goers are now soon to realize and enjoy.

LILLIAN RUSSELL.
A most important event in theatricals is the forthcoming appearance of the beauty and singer, Lillian Russell, in S. S. Shubert's elaborate New York Casino production, "Lady Teazle." The queen of comic opera is to appear here Friday evening at the Hyperion Theatre. Miss Russell has been given the benefit of a supporting company of the first merit, while the chorus contingent includes a splendid number of stunning show girls. The production, we are assured, is surpassingly beautiful in point of scenery and costumes, and there should be little question of its attracting large audiences. Over one hundred people are employed in the new opera—the same company as seen during Lady Teazle's recent Broadway triumph.

NAT GOODWIN.
For next Saturday the management of the Hyperion Theatre offers an old, yet a new attraction. This seems analogous, but when the play-loving public are informed that the boards of that play-house will be held by Nat C. Goodwin they will know that in him they recognize an old-time favorite, and yet feel that he is new to many of the play-goers of the present day in that he has not been in this city for several years. Mr. Goodwin's clientele, both in this country and abroad, is so large that he has disappointed a number of cities year after year, owing to his not being able to extend his engagements to them. Therefore it is with considerable anticipation of pleasure that the management of the Hyperion grasped the opportunity to give Mr. Goodwin the date to be devoted to the Connecticut metropolis. Mr. Goodwin promised to give us two of his brightest plays for the Saturday afternoon, offering the comedy classic "A Glided Fool," and for Saturday night that drama of intense heart interest entitled "The Usurper," bringing with him the entire production for both.

FORBES ROBERTSON.
An event of more than ordinary interest to theatre-goers who enjoy Shakespearean performances is the coming appearance of Mr. Forbes Robertson and his English company, under the direction of Messrs. Klaw and Erlanger, when he will present "Hamlet" at the Hyperion Theatre on Monday evening. Mr. Robertson comes here direct from his Knickerbocker Theatre, New York, engagement. The production in its entirety will be used.

New Haven Theater.
"Alone in the World" will close its engagement at the New Haven Theatre with the performances of this afternoon and this evening.

"A PAIR OF PINKS."
"A Pair of Pinks" will be seen at the New Haven Theatre for three nights, commencing Thursday, March 23, with Ward & Vokes as two Pinkerton Detectives.

A DESPERATE CHANCE.
"A Desperate Chance" is the title of the latest play from the pen of that well-known and successful playwright, Mr. Theodore Kremer. It is taken from the life of the famous Biddle Brothers, whose career as robbers and jail breakers is known all over the country.

It will be produced at the New Haven Theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, with Wednesday matinee.

"THE VILLAGE PARSON."
"The Village Parson," which has become a great favorite with the theatre-going public, will be seen at the City Mission hall, March 17 and 18, with Saturday matinee. This play intensely dramatic in action, and while not over-strained, there are climaxes which keep the interest of the spectators wrought up to the highest point. Many of the passages are very pathetic, and there are scenes in which the element of humor predominates. The plot is well defined, and as the story ends happily, there are no regrets. The scenic features are well cared for; the carnival scene being especially bright. All of the acts in fact are equipped with new and bright scenery. The company is by far above the average, and a finishing production may be looked for.

Poll's Theater.

Stuart is the big feature of the Poll bill this week and he makes a decidedly favorable impression with that select set of his. He has some good songs. Dolan and Langer with their comedy and novelty are the wonders of the bill. They have "The High Toned Burglar" and he takes everything even though he is high toned. Holy and Lee are the two Hebrew comedians and they have a laugh a minute in their act. Finlay and Burke with their specialty, Muzak and Maxette with their acrobatics and novelty and the Rolfees with their musical act are the specialty artists of the big bill.

Major Doyle and his monologue introduces the Lilliputian comedian.

The electrograph has a host of the motion pictures and completes the bill. Prices: Evenings, 10c, 20c, 30c; matinees, 10c, 20c; ladies at matinees, 10c; box seats, 50c.

HOSE BIDS OPENED.

Committee on Supplies of the Fire Commissioners Considers Offers.

The committee on supplies of the fire commissioners held a meeting in city hall last evening for the purpose of opening the bids for the new hose which is needed for the department. There were two kinds of hose specified in the order and there was only two bids offered, one for each. The committee stated that they considered both bids as low and will submit them to the entire board of fire commissioners at the special meeting of the commissioners, which will be held this evening. The commissioners will also consider the new Ninth ward engine house matter at their meeting to-night.

The bids last night were for two kinds of hose, 2,000 feet of each being required. The first bid was from the Cornelius Callahan company of Boston and was for a new kind of hose which is known as "The Adriatic Double Jacket Hose." The bid was 55 cents a foot.

The second bid was from the Boston Woven Hose and Rubber company and was for 2,000 feet of the "Boston Best Knit Jacket Hose" at 55 cents a foot. This is the kind of hose which is in use for the most part, in the department at the present time and the offer is considered a most reasonable one. Both bids will be acted on at the full board meeting this evening.

City Clerk Norris was in Hartford yesterday, being held before one of the legislative committees in regard to a bill prescribing the manner of keeping

HEALTH AUTHORITIES CONFER.

Concerning the "Spotted Fever" Conditions in This City.

All the members of the local board of health were present at the regular meeting of that body which was held in their rooms in the police building yesterday afternoon, and in addition President Brewer and Secretary Linsley of the state board of health were also present for the purpose of conferring with the local board concerning the "spotted fever" conditions in this city.

The meeting was held in executive session and after it was finished those present had little to say concerning what was done. It was stated, however, that both boards were investigating the fever to find out the cause; from what source it came, and the best means of preventing it. The members all seem to think that there is little cause for alarm as to its spreading and also think that with the coming of warmer weather whatever has spread the infection will pass away. It is thought that any danger from contracting the fever from any of the present patients has passed. In fact many of the most prominent physicians in this city say that the disease is not infectious.

RECOVERING FROM SPOTTED FEVER.

Warren Conklin, aged two years and five months, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Conklin of 25 Audubon street, was stricken with spotted fever early Sunday morning. For over twenty-four hours the child lingered between life and death, but by heroic measures Dr. Vishno of York street and Dr. Vishno of Orange street have managed to bring about an encouraging change in his condition and believe that the child is now out of danger. Three weeks ago Mr. and Mrs. Conklin lost their six-year-old boy from spotted fever.

NEXT DORSCHT CONCERT.

Messrs. Hegel and Guilford to Play Piccolo Duett.

For the final Dorscht concert of the winter series at the Hyperion next Sunday night the Second regiment band, under the brilliant leadership of Frank Fichtl, will render one of the finest programmes yet given this season.

One number that will attract widespread interest will be the piccolo duett by Messrs. William Hegel and Frederick Guilford. This duett was to be given at the twentieth anniversary concert last month and keen disappointment was felt when it was announced that Mr. Hegel had been stricken with grip and despite heroic efforts was unable to appear.

For some time after the concert Leader Fichtl constantly received letters and personal requests that the duett be included on the programme of the next event, and he has been only too happy to accede, as the number is unique and promises to make a great hit.

PURIM SERVICES.

By B'nai Scholom Congregation Sunday Evening.

The Purim services on the following evening at 8 o'clock will be more impressive this year than before, as the Sunday school and choir have prepared appropriate Purim hymns and quartettes for the evening. The sermon will be preached by Rev. Dr. Louis Yassour. The subject of the sermon being "The Solidarity of Judaism."
